

I Will Trust Him Packet

Dear Brother or Sister in the Lord,

As a church leader in New England for the past 15 years, I know the need to persevere through trials. During one of those "dark nights of the soul," I began singing a song that declared my willingness to trust the Lord no matter what trials come my way.

The song has been used by a number of congregations and received a positive response. Many have remarked to me about the power of the scriptural words and the simplicity of the music. Even some children have been singing it around their homes.

Others have had some kind things to say:

- *I know for a fact the song was born out of adversity in pursuit of the kingdom and has touched a spiritual chord in our congregation. I believe it is from God. Steve Wright, Elder and Worship Leader, Lincoln Christian Fellowship, Lincoln RI

I believe the song is from the Lord and will be edifying in your walk. It is especially helpful for those going through deep times of trial. I commend it to your use.

Attached you will find the guitar and overhead sheets. The website also has a lead sheet. Feel free to pass them along to your worship leader or pastor.

Your brother under grace,

Chap
